

BancorpSouth Receives Regulatory Approval of its Mergers with Panama City, Florida-based Summit Financial Enterprises, Inc. and Van Alstyne, Texas-based Van Alstyne Financial Corporation

TUPELO, Miss., Aug. 14, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- BancorpSouth Bank (NYSE: BXS) announced it has received regulatory approvals from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to complete its proposed mergers with Summit Financial Enterprises, Inc., the parent company of Summit Bank, National Association (collectively referred to as "Summit"), and with Van Alstyne Financial Corporation, the parent company of Texas Star Bank (collectively referred to as "Texas Star").

The mergers, originally announced on March 5, 2019, are anticipated to close on September 1, 2019, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. As of June 30, 2019, Texas Star and Summit collectively reported total assets of $905.6 million, total loans of $610.7 million and total deposits of $799.8 million.

Summit

"We're pleased to receive approval to merge with such a strong organization as Summit," said Dan Rollins, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of BancorpSouth Bank. "Summit's experienced bankers and stellar reputation across its communities will position us for success along Florida's Emerald Coast."

Andy Stein, President and Chief Executive Officer of Summit, added, "The entire Summit team is looking forward to joining forces with BancorpSouth. We're excited to leverage BancorpSouth's strengths, resources and broader array of financial services for our customers and communities."

Upon completion of the transaction, Stein will serve as President - Northwest Florida Division.

Texas Star

"We're excited to welcome Texas Star to the BancorpSouth family," Rollins said. "This merger will allow us to combine with a successful community bank that has been serving its communities since 1890 and continue our strategic growth in the Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas CMSA."

Randle Jones, President of Texas Star Bank, added, "BancorpSouth is the perfect partner for us to build upon our proud legacy. We're confident that BancorpSouth will provide our customers with the same community bank feel they currently enjoy, as well as all of the benefits that come with being a regional bank."

Upon completion of the transaction, Jones will serve as President - Grayson County Market.
